Dear Sir or Madam:

The Maryland Coalition Against Sexual Assault (MCASA) is pleased to endorse Ben Atherton Zeman's theatrical production Voices of Men as an innovative and highly effective way to educate both male and female audiences about sexual assault and intimate partner violence. Mr. Atherton Zeman performed his one-man show at MCASA's statewide campus conference entitled, Finding Our Way to Safer Communities Creating a Coordinated Campus Response to Sexual Assault, Dating Violence and Stalking and received remarkable reviews.

The production includes a multitude of visual and auditory modes to create an engaging and dynamic presentation. By utilizing all sources of media, Mr. Atherton Zeman demonstrates that he understands his audience's needs and brings a 21st century twist that many participants should find interesting. In addition, the combination of appropriate humor and seriousness, fun and hard facts, provides a unique and creative approach to educating audiences about violence against women.

MCASA highly recommends Mr. Atherton's Zeman's performance of Voices of Men and strongly encourages decision-makers at high schools, colleges, and universities to consider bringing this production to their campus.

Sincerely,

Robin Warren
